

Elizabeth A. Thurber, formerly of Lyndonville, died Monday morning, May 16, 2005, at St. Johnsbury Health and Rehabilitation Center in St. Johnsbury at the age of 93. She was born June 17, 1911, in Exeter, N.H., daughter of the late Harley J. and Minnie E. (Huth) Thurber. Miss Thurber graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy, Class of 1930. She later graduated from Lyndon Normal School and became a school teacher, teaching in area one-room schoolhouses for several years. After leaving Lyndonville, she enjoyed living with and spending time with her family in different southern Vermont towns over the years. She had been a resident at St. Johnsbury Health and Rehabilitation Center since 1998. Survivors include two brothers, Harley Thurber of Oceanside, Calif., and Richard Thurber and his wife Dottie of Austin, Texas; and nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a brother, John Thurber; her sister and her husband, Helen and Paul Aubin; and this past April 30, her sister-in-law, Grace Thurber. Graveside services will be held Friday, May 27, 2005, at 1 p.m., at Woodmont Cemetery in East Burke, with the Rev. Joan Vincent officiating. There will be no calling hours.
