

MORSE, Ralph E. Passed away Sunday, April 22, 2012, at the age of 93. For 20 years he was on radio news and hosted talk shows for CBS-WEEI. During WW II Ralph served in the US Navy Pacific war zone for 3 years in a PGM gunboat. While broadcasting for CBS, Ralph narrated for international documentary films. In Boston, Ralph taught theatre courses at the Boston Conservatory before semi-retiring to Maine where he directed classical dramas at the Denmark Arts Center. A native of Cape Cod with a long family history beginning in the 1600's, Ralph Morse is a high example of New England roots. He is survived by his spouse, Lillian, three children (Cindy, Jerome, Jonathan), 9 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, and a great-great granddaughter. A Memorial Service will be held at the Denmark Arts Center, Maine, Saturday afternoon May 12 at 4 p.m. Also, a private Memorial Service will be held at the Cedarville Cemetery, Ploughed Neck Rd., E. Sandwich, MA, Sat. May 19, 2012 at 4 p.m.
