

Dorothy Delight Tann Wing, of Littleton, N.H., entered Life Eternal on Oct. 25, 2008. She was a life-long resident of the North Country, living for over 65 years in Littleton. "Dot" Wing was born on June 26, 1920, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., to John William and Hazel Taylor Tann. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy, class of 1938. Dot had several careers, first and foremost as a homemaker and loving mother of her children and doting grandmother and great-grandmother. She also worked as a telephone operator for New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, as a retail sales clerk for Stod Nichols Mens Wear and Aubuchon Hardware, and as a childcare provider. On June 23, 1946, she was married in Littleton to Walter E. Wing. He predeceased her in June of 1984. Dot was also predeceased by her three brothers John William Tann II, J. Richard Tann and Paul T. Tann. She is survived by her three children Stephen John Wing and wife Carol of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Delight Ann Wing and husband John Long of Jericho, Vt., and Michael John Wing and wife Kimberlee of Yarmouth, Maine; six grandchildren, Blair, Duncan, Kirsten, Taylor, Webb and Jenny; and four great-grandchildren, Isaiah, Michael, Elizabeth and Lucia. She was a volunteer at Littleton Hospital and an active member of the First United Methodist Church of Littleton. Dot enjoyed drives on the country roads of Grafton County and trips to the Maine coast. Her greatest love was children. She was happiest when she was entertaining her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, serving at a daycare facility, or dispensing advice and counsel to young gentlemen from her post at Stod Nichols store on Main Street. She spent hours watching children play from her home across from Remich Park. At the family's request, all services will be private. Those persons wishing to remember Dot are invited to make a contribution to the First United Methodist Church, 18 Main St., Littleton, NH 03561.
