

Lillian Charette Mullally Obituary

Mrs. Lillian Charette Mullally, 94, longtime director of the St. Johnsbury Senior Center, passed away on Tuesday, Feb. 3, 2015, with her family at her side.

She was born in Springfield, Vt., on July 17, 1920, the daughter of Clyde and Anna (Breason) Charette. Her husband Joe Mullally predeceased her in 1990.

Her home was the St. Johnsbury House and the residents were part of her family. She loved to travel and was fortunate to have gone to Hawaii nine times! She was very busy participating in the many functions at the St. Johnsbury House, playing bingo, and making jewelry and crafts. Lillian was an excellent seamstress and made clothes for her family throughout her life time. She was a member of the Red Hat ladies.
