

Priscilla Lord Thompson, 91, of Danville, passed away Sunday, April 22, 2012, at the residence of her granddaughter and her husband in Delaware where she had been staying for the past three years.

She was born Oct. 2, 1920, in St. Johnsbury, the daughter of Ralph and Myra (Walker) Lord. On May 22, 1948, she married Claude E. Thompson of Hardwick, Vt.

+ click to enlarge

Priscilla Lord Thompson

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Danville for many years where she taught Sunday School and volunteered for various church functions. She was member of Eastern Star and after graduating from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1939 she worked for Fairbanks Morse and later The Caledonian National Bank in Danville. She enjoyed gardening, bird watching, spending the summers on Ewells Pond and volunteering at The Open Door and NVRH.

Survivors include two children: Claudia Cochran of Williamsburg, Va., and Deborah Kimball of Littleton, N.H. Her granddaughter, Rebecca Matysiak (Kimball) of Delaware and three great-grandchildren, Gabriel, Lukas and Natalia. She was predeceased by her parents, her husband Claude in 1987, and her beloved son Christopher in 1975.

Burial will be at The Danville Green Cemetery this summer. A notice will be given at a later date. A special thanks to Sandy and Alan Towle of Danville, many Danville Friends, and Delaware Hospice who assisted Rob and Rebecca in her final months.