

FARR: C. Leslie, formerly of Main Street in St. Johnsbury, passed away at the Pines Rehabilitation and Health Center in Lyndon, Sunday evening, June 1, 2003. He was born in St. Johnsbury, July 13, 1921, the son of Wilbur and Edith (Keeler) Farr. Les graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy and enlisted in the U.S. Air Force in 1942. Following his honorable discharge, he worked for several years at the Citizens Savings Bank in St. Johnsbury. Les was employed by the town of St. Johnsbury for 33 years and retired as an assistant town clerk to Norman Sleeper. He served his country during World War II at Guadalcanal in the Pacific theater. He was active in both the Lyndonville VFW and American Legion posts and coordinated veterans' bus trips to the VA Complex in White River Junction. He enjoyed many summers spent at Joe's Pond. He is survived by his wife, Blanche (Barber) Farr, who resides at the St. Johnsbury Health and Rehabilitation Center; one brother, Collins J. Farr of the Canterbury Inn of St. Johnsbury; and three nieces and two nephews. Services will be held Thursday, June 5, at 2 p.m., at the Sayles Funeral Home with Glenn A. Goodrich, bishop of the Lyndonville ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, officiating. Interment with military honors will follow at 2:45 p.m. at the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. There will be no visiting hours.
