

Marion E. Deoss, 83, of Washington, died Saturday, Jan. 14, 2006, at home. She was born June 4, 1922, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., to the late John H. Hagan and Mary Brannigan Hagan. On Aug. 28, 1940, in St. Johnsbury, she married Clifton K. Deoss Sr., who preceded her in death. Mrs. Deoss was a factory worker who worked at the T-Bar until her retirement. She enjoyed bowling, bingo, gaming and spending time with family at family gatherings. She is survived by five children, Clifton K. Deoss Jr. of Tucson, Ariz., Virginia Rivera and her husband Victor of Tucson, Ariz., Kathleen Stuckey and her husband Chester Sr. of Washington, Ruth Blake and her husband David of Laporte, Texas, and John Deoss and his wife Holly of New Hampshire; one sister, Mary Bea Waterman of Waterbury, Conn.; 15 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. In addition to her husband and parents, she was preceded in death by two sons, Charles Deoss and Michael Deoss; and one daughter, Mary Ellen Deoss.