

Charles E. Mosher of Gallup Mills, Vt., passed away Friday, June 3, 2005, at the St. Johnsbury Health and Rehab Center at the age of 84. He was born in Penobscott, Maine, on Oct. 30, 1920, the son of Charles C. and Mildred (Firres) Mosher. He was an Army World War II veteran of the European Theatre. He graduated from the Vocational School in St. Johnsbury and worked around St. Johnsbury as an auto mechanic, retiring from Quality Motors. Everybody knew him as "the auto mechanic." He is survived by one son, Brian Mosher and his wife Fatima of Lyndonville (P.O. Box 1404 05851); four grandchildren, Charles L. Mosher and his wife Jody of West Burke, Brian Mosher Jr. and his wife Crystal of Newark, Jeff Mosher of Sheffield, and Sanita Mosher of West Burke; two great-grandchildren; two brothers, Kenneth Blay and his wife Dricilla of Lyndonville, and Robert Blay and his wife Florence of Londonderry, N.H.; and four nephews and one niece. Services will be held at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Disabled American Veterans Chapter of St. Johnsbury.
