

DUNBAR: Harold Justis Jr., 80, 159 Pavillion Lane, Barnet, Vt., died suddenly Tuesday, Oct. 12, 2004, of heart failure at his residence. He was born in Haverhill, N.H., Dec. 28, 1923, son of Harold J. Dunbar Sr. and Aileen Marie (White). He was a veteran of World War II serving with the U.S. Army. Harold owned and operated Dunbar Plumbing and Heating Inc. for 40 years in Barnet, retiring in 1987. Harold was a member of Washburn Masonic Lodge F & AM 92 Danville; past member of Mt. Sinai Shrine, Montpelier, Vt.; IOOF CT River Lodge, Barnet; member the Barnet Board of Civil Authority; served on the school board for 18 years; member and former fire chief of Barnet Fire Department for many years; justice of the peace; and director of the West Barnet Meal Site. Surviving relatives include his wife of 58 years, Barbara (Moore) Dunbar of Barnet; one son, Duane H. Dunbar and Londa Grant of Boothbay Harbor, Maine; two daughters, Paula J. Nye and William of Valdese, N.C., and Bonnie Easter and Don of West Barnet, Vt.; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; one brother, Dale Dunbar of McIndoe Falls, Vt.; one sister, Pauline Hart of Wells River, Vt.; and several nieces, nephews and cousins. Three brothers predeceased him,

Neil G., Dean and Robert Dunbar. It was Harold's wish that there be no calling hours. A graveside service will be held Saturday, Oct. 16, at 1:30 p.m., in the Pleasant View Cemetery, Route 5, Barnet, Vt. A close friend of the family, Mr. Fran Zaletta, will officiate. It is requested by the family that memorials be made to the Barnet Fire Department, 160 Church St., Barnet, VT 05821.