

Margaret Taylor - Obituary

Margaret L. (Cutting) Taylor formerly of Lyndonville, passed away on Oct. 4, 2012. She was 89.

She was born on July 1, 1923, in a family of seven children born to Renwick and Orris (Humphrey) Cutting. She was raised in Lyndon Center, attended Lyndon Institute and married Maxwell Taylor in 1940.

Margaret lived in Lyndonville all of her life. She was a member of the Lyndonville knitting club and a home demonstration group. She enjoyed playing cribbage, reading the newspaper and books about the history of towns in this area and genealogy. She was a devoted wife and mother and loved spending time with her family. "Peggy" will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her four children: Arthur Taylor and wife Nina of Carpinteria, Calif., Philip Taylor of St. Johnsbury, Janet Hebert of South Burlington and Lesley Mattei and her husband Ken of St. Johnsbury; also 10 grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Maxwell Taylor in 1999, and her five brothers and her sister.

A graveside service will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made in Margaret's name to: Upright Steeple Society, P O Box 224, Lyndon, VT 05850.
