

Marguerite Harris, age 88, of Littleton, N.H., passed away on Dec. 27, 2010, at the Lafayette Center in Franconia, N.H.

Marguerite was born April 4, 1922, a daughter to Frank and Blanche Boutet, in St. Johnsbury, Vt. She was a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy and attended beauty school in Boston.

Marguerite began her career as a beautician in Nantucket, Mass., prior to moving back to Littleton, N.H., where she continued as a beautician and finally opened her own shop in her home on School Street, which she ran until she retired. She enjoyed going to Ogunquit, Maine, beaches.

Surviving family members include her husband, Ralph Harris; her son Jason Taylor and Susan Tann of Haverhill, N.H.; her stepchildren, Scott and Deb Harris of Nashua, N.H., Tally and Bob Parker of Raymond, Maine; grandchildren Kerri and Joel Horne of Ellsworth, Maine, Katie and Jason Leveille of Bridgton, Maine, Kristin Harris and fiance Ryan Prokop of Londonderry, N.H., Shawn Harris of Nashville, Tenn.; and two great-grandchildren, Sam and Luke Horne.

She was predeceased by her parents, brother Francis Boutet and a nephew, Michael.

Arrangements and care have been entrusted to the Pillsbury Phaneuf Funeral Homes. For more information, go to the obituary section of our website at www.pillsburyphaneuf.net.

Marguerite Harris

