

JUNQUET: Pauline Louise Dussault, 81, of Stafford, Va., formerly of New Paltz, N.Y., departed from this life Wednesday, Jan. 8, 2003 at Carriage Hill Nursing Home in Stafford. Mrs. Junquet was born March 24, 1921 in Waterford, a daughter of Emile and Marie A. Lebrun Dussault. She attended the St. Joseph's Academy, Class of 1941. She retired from St. Francis Hospital in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., in March, 1986, after performing expert duties as a medical lab technologist for 40 years and 9 months. She was a member of St. William of York Parish in Stafford. She was preceded in death by her parents; seven brothers, Msgr. Joseph H., Albert, John, Walter, her twin brother Paul, Robert, and Raymond Dussault; and three sisters, Amanda Descoteaux, Jean Lauria and Lorraine Talcove. She is survived by her four children and their spouses, Virginia and Dale Hudson of Stafford, Va., Janice and Duane Taylor of Riverview, Fla., Joseph and Jane Junquet of Orangeburg, S.C., and Arthur and Linda Junquet of Largo, Fla.; 13 grandchildren; two great-grandsons; three sisters, Margaret Hall and husband Frank of St. Johnsbury, Cecile Coppotelli of Staten Island, N.Y., and Theresa Brown of West Warwick, R.I.; and one brother and his wife, Edward and Kim Dussault of Fredericksburg, Va. Funeral services were held Jan. 13 at William of York Catholic Church in Stafford. Graveside services will be held Friday, May 16 at 1 p.m. at Mt. Calvary Cemetery in St. Johnsbury, with a close family friend, the Rev. Raphael Iannone, officiating. Memorial contributions may be made in her name to the American Cancer Society, in care of Trudy Clifton, 113 Tallpines Ave., Locust Grove, VA 22508, or to St. William of York Catholic Church, 3103 Jefferson Davis Highway, Stafford, VA 22554.