

Dr. Regis Paul Nolin, 84, East Dorset, passed away at his home on Sept. 27, 2006. He was born April 27, 1922, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., the son of Joseph and Mabel (Emmons) Nolin. He attended St. Johnsbury Academy, the University of Vermont and the Chicago College of Podiatry. During World War II he served in the Pacific Theatre as pharmacist's mate second class in the U.S. Navy. He married Joyce Whalen on April 28, 1956, in Manchester, Vt. Dr. Nolin practiced podiatry with offices in Burlington and St. Johnsbury until 1976. He then moved to East Dorset where he continued a part-time practice until his retirement. He enjoyed the outdoors, fishing, and maintaining his yard and garden. He had a way with animals and had very special relationships with many dogs and cats. Survivors include his wife of 50 years, Joyce; one daughter, Karen Nolin Gavett and her husband Ian of Charlotte, Vt.; one brother, Charles of St. Johnsbury; and his two grandsons, Devon and Dana Gavett. He was predeceased by his parents; and a sister, Gratia Roy. A memorial service will be held Tuesday, Oct. 3, 2006, at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Manchester. He will be cremated and a graveside service will be held in St. Johnsbury at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions may be made to the Manchester Rescue Squad, in care of Brewster Funeral Service, P.O. Box 885, Manchester, VT 05255.
