Warren Penniman

Warren graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1941 and went on to serve in the Navy during WWII. He worked in the St. Johnsbury railroad yard and in the ticket office until going to work for Ralston Purina. Upon the plant's closing he did custodial work at St. Johnsbury Academy until his retirement. The Pennimans were members of the South Congregational Church. Warren was happy to have attended his seventieth class reunion at the Academy in 2011.

He is survived by his son Richard W. Penniman and wife Debbie of New Gloucester, Maine; two grandsons Richard and Scott; two great-grandchildren: Richard's son Dylan and Scott's daughter Cheyanne who were all pleased to have gotten together this past Christmas.

He is also survived by his nieces and nephews. With Richard being in Maine, his niece Laura Barrett and her husband Larry were pleased to do the little things locally for her uncle as did his niece Elizabeth

Knights. Audrey Penniman also survives him as a sister-in-law. He was predeceased by four brothers: Leonard, Howard, Edward, and Lyman, and his sister Marjorie Shoppe.

Visiting hours will be held at the Sayles Funeral Home this Saturday, Jan. 12 from 2 to 3:30 p.m. and will conclude with a prayer service at 3:30 p.m. led by the Rev. Mark M. Milligan, pastor at the South Congregational Church. Following cremation he will be buried with military honors May 2 at 1 p.m. at the Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

Memorial contributions could be directed to SAD/SAC, c/o Caledonian Record, P.O. Box 8, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
