

HUTCHINSON: Eva Rose, 82, of Fort Worth, Texas, a homemaker, went home to the Lord on angels' wings Sunday, Oct. 10, 2004, with her family by her side after a courageous nine-year battle with renal failure. Eva and her twin sister, Effie, were born on Sept. 14, 1922, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., to the late Nicholas E. and Jennie Alger Gentile. In 1946, Eva married Leon Somers and had Michael, after they were divorced she met and married Ernest A. Hutchinson on Nov. 22, 1951. They lived in Goss Hollow, Vt. Ernest adopted Michael and in 1958 they moved their family to North Monroe, N.H. In 1982, Eva and Ernest moved to Titusville, Fla. Ernest passed away on April 1, 1991, and Eva stayed in Florida until 1994 when she moved to Fort Worth, Texas, with Michael. In August 2000, Eva moved to Tandy Village, an assisted living center, staying there until June 2004 when she moved to Shady Grove Nursing Home. Eva was a member of Celebration Worship Center in Arlington, Texas, and American Legion Auxiliary Woodsville, N.H. Besides Ernest and her parents, Eva was predeceased by her sister, Effie, in November 1922; brother, Frank; and granddaughter, Angelique in October 1975. Survivors include her son, Michael and wife Linda of 5269 Dillon Circle, Haltom City, TX 76137; son, Mark; daughter, Vickie Ann; granddaughter, April; and great-grandson, John Ernest, all of 138 Oak Leaf Drive, NRH, TX 76180; sister, Dorena Ames of Galveston, Texas; sisters-in-law, Hazel Andrews of North Woodstock, N.H., and Marilyn Gentile of Berkley, Calif.; brothers-in-law, William Hederman of North Billerica, Mass., and Daniel Hutchinson of East St. Johnsbury; nieces and nephews; and many longtime close friends. In lieu of flowers, Eva requested donations be made in her memory to Celebration Worship Center, P.O. Box 120189 Arlington, TX 76102-0189, or the National Kidney Foundation, 5429 LBJ Freeway, Ste 650, Dallas TX 75240. Eva was cremated and is being brought home by her sons and her Pastor Bill Hysell, to be buried next to Ernest on Saturday, Oct. 30, at 11 a.m. at the North Monroe, N.H., cemetery.
