

LANGMAID: Ida "Mem" Bennett, 78, of St. Johnsbury, died at her residence Tuesday, June 5, 2001. She was born Feb. 12, 1923, in Bennett, Quebec, Canada, the daughter of the late Wilfred and Williamine (Cochrane) Bennett. She was a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy, Class of 1942, and was a member of the Goss Hollow Homemakers and the North Danville Community Club. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Philip Langmaid, and a grandson, Aaron Root. She is survived by her children and their spouses, Alana and Edward Jarrosak of Lyndonville, Phil Ann and Richard Jenkins of St. Johnsbury, Alan and Susan Langmaid of St. Johnsbury, Lee Ann Beattie of North Danville, and Arlan "Chip" Langmaid of St. Johnsbury; her grandchildren, Jennifer Pal and John Pal, Heather Woods and her husband Bryan, Meridith Berry and her husband Eric, John Jenkins and Melissa Jenkins, Philip Beattie and Plyn "Peter" Beattie, and Jeffrey Langmaid and Kelly Langmaid; her great-grandchildren, Bryan, Kate-Lynn and Samantha Pal, and Jade Berry; her sisters, Mildred Pelow of Lyndon, Frances Pageau of Farmington, N.H., Rowena Miles of West Burke, Thelma Griggs of Williston, Hazel Leggett and her husband William of Williston, and Muriel Heath and her husband Darwin of Lyndonville. There will be no calling hours. Funeral services will be held Friday, June 8 at 2 p.m. at the North Danville Baptist Church with the Rev. Jim Meister officiating. Burial will be in the St. Johnsbury Center Cemetery. Those who wish may send contributions in her memory to the Caledonia Home Health Care Agency, P.O. Box 383, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.