

Marilyn Marshell Johnson, 78, of Newark died on Monday, September 29, 2003, at her home. Mrs. Johnson was born on February 26, 1925, in St. Johnsbury, the daughter of the late Fred and Ruth (Calkins) Marshell. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in the class of 1943 and Fisher Junior College in Boston in the class of 1946. She worked at the Fitch Clinic, the Vermont State Police office in St. Johnsbury, and Hunt Memorial Hospital in Danvers, Massachusetts. She enjoyed golf and was a member of the Orleans Country Club. She enjoyed rug hooking and was a member of the Northeast Rug Hookers. Mrs. Johnson is survived by her husband, Paul W. Johnson, of Newark; by her three children and their spouses: Peter and Linda Johnson of Derby Line, Jane and Paul Carnabuci of Palmyra, Maine, Mark Johnson and friend, Jill Anderson, of Danville, New Hampshire; by six grandchildren; by two sisters, Grace and her husband, Harley Thurber, of California and Francis Dean of Orange, Massachusetts; by two sisters-in-law, Alice Blair of Danville and Lucia Pearl and her husband, William, of Danville. There will be no funeral services. Burial will be at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in St. Johnsbury at the family's convenience. Those who wish may send contributions in Mrs. Johnson's memory to the Caledonia Home Health Care Agency, P.O. Box 383, St. Johnsbury, Vermont 05819.