

Beryl J. Prive, 86, of Newport, Vt., went to be with the Lord on her birthday June 17, 2013, in Derby, Vt., with her family by her side. She was born June 17, 1927, in Newport, Vt., the daughter of Charles and Mabel (Cole) Webb. On Sept. 5, 1949, she married Raymond Prive who predeceased her.

She was a full-time wife, mother and homemaker. She was a member of the cheerful card company. She was always taking care of family and relatives and was a great cook and baker, especially her homemade baked beans, homemade pickles and pies.

Our mother had a lot of hobbies that she enjoyed through the years. She was a big Salt and Pepper collector over the years and loved collecting from each of the States and Germany with some help from her nieces who traveled throughout the different states. Our mother enjoyed playing bingo at the Barton and Lyndonville Fairs, picking strawberries and blueberries, going to many yard sales, putting puzzles together as well as doing crossword puzzles, knitting and crocheting, painting pictures, and most of all walking on her street with the Bobbin Mill Girls over the years. The Bobbin Mill Girls were Beryl, Teresa (Lague) Coburn and Pauline Bouffard.

She is survived by her children: Judith Gilman and her husband Edward of Newport, Vt., and Gary Prive of Newport, Vt. She is also survived by her sister Blendine Vance and her husband Francis of St. Johnsbury, Vt., by her brother and sister in-laws Arthur Prive and his wife Jeanne of Newport, Vt., Jeannette Thomas of West Haven, Conn., and Dorothy Prive of Gulfport, Miss.; and by many nieces and nephews.
