

GUYER: Robert V., 75, passed away suddenly, Saturday, July 26, 2003. He was a longtime St. Johnsbury resident of 111 Railroad St., and summer resident at Joe's Pond. He was born in St. Johnsbury, July 7, 1928, the son of Adelard "Delora" and Irene (Couture) Guyer. His father died in 1981, and his mother in 1983. In the aftermath of World War II, he served in the Navy for four years, 1945-1949. He came back to St. Johnsbury and worked in the drafting department at Fairbanks Morse. Bob had two main careers in his life: he retired from EHV-Weidmann as a production supervisor; and previously he had been a drainage foreman for Laperle Construction. The family camp on Joe's Pond was a longtime source of pleasure for Bob as it was for his parents. There he developed a passion for the restoration of old boats, the building of new ones and the restoration of antique outboard motors. He was also a longtime photography enthusiast. He is survived by a sister, Lucille Routhier and husband George of Laconia, N.H.; a nephew, Marc Routhier and wife Riitta of Frostburg, Md.; two nieces, Denise Finn and husband Dennis of Kittery, Maine, and Lisa Routhier of Los Angeles Calif.; a close cousin, Raymond Poliquin of Woodsville, N.H.; and other cousins. He was also predeceased by a nephew, Martin Routhier in 1998. Funeral services will be held at the Sayles Funeral Home, Tuesday, July 29 at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Robert H. Sargent officiating. Committal with military honors will follow at Mt. Calvary Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday from 1 p.m. to the start of the service. Memorial contributions may be directed to the Danville Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 255, Danville, VT 05828.
