

William H. 'Bill' Rodd Obituary

William H. 'Bill' Rodd, of 187 Overclyffe Road, in St. Johnsbury, died unexpectedly Sunday, on Christmas Day. Bill was 83.

He was born in Concord, N.H., on Dec. 24, 1928, the son of William G. and Florence (Wallace) Rodd.

Bill was president of Rodd Roofing founded by his father, William G. Rodd, in 1920.

He is survived by his wife Natalie (Cutting) Rodd whom he married April 14, 1951; three sons and their wives all of St. Johnsbury: Stephen and Pamela, Tino and Adrienne, Casey and Cindy; two grandsons: Jason and Brenda of St. Johnsbury and their son Brandon, Bill's only great-grandchild, Scott and April of Burke; his brother Sam and his wife Debbie of Florida; Sam's three daughters, Tina, Tonia and Toni. Bill was very fond and proud of his 'adopted sons' from Nepal: Mingma, Pasang, C.T., and Chhuldin 'Chili' Sherpa; and many cousins residing in Prince Edward Island.

The Club at Old Mill was a dear part of Bill's life. In keeping with Bill's style, an informal gathering of friends and family will be held at The Club this Friday, Dec. 30, from 1-4 p.m. (located at 49 Perkins Street in St. Johnsbury). Just come as you are. There will be no calling hours or formal service.

Bill loved St. Johnsbury. Contributions could be directed to the new St. Johnsbury History and Heritage Center, P.O. Box 223, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819, or to CALEX, P.O. Box 570, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.

Or, memorial contributions could be directed to "The Jimmy Fund," payable to "Dana-Farber Cancer Institute" and sent to P.O. Box 849168, Boston, MA 02284-9168.
