

Jean L. Clark, 84, a long-time Manchester resident, died peacefully Monday morning, Dec. 15, 2014. Jean was born in Lyndon, VT on September 12, 1930, the daughter of the late Harold Learmouth and Arlene (Mathews) Learmouth

Jean graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in Vermont in 1949, and spent many years as a Dental Assistant in New Hampshire, Vermont, and Massachusetts. Her greatest love and passion was for her family to whom she was fiercely loyal. She proudly celebrated her 60th wedding anniversary with her loving husband William Clark on April 3, 2014.

Jean is survived by her husband, Bill Clark; her two daughters Cheryl Cornish and husband Craig, and Deborah Covatis and husband Bill; 3 grandchildren, Jennifer Donovan, Nicholas Covatis and wife Kathleen, and Scott Covatis; three great-grandchildren Kylie Donovan, and Lily and Emma Covatis; her sister Carolyn Holland and husband Donald; and many nieces; nephews; and dear friends, including her best friend and confidant Jeannine Bernier of Manchester.

She was predeceased by her sisters Ann Langmaid, and Phyllis Locke

Services: Calling hours will be held from 4-7:30 pm, Wednesday, December 17, 2014, with a memorial celebration beginning at 7:30 pm at Goodwin Funeral Home and Cremation Service, 607 Chestnut Street, Manchester. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the New Hampshire Association for the Blind, 25 Walker Street, Concord, NH, 03301.

Jean will be dearly missed and always remembered with a smile.
