

GREENE: Kermit R., 72, of St. Johnsbury, died peacefully at home Tuesday, Aug. 19, 2003. He was born in St. Johnsbury, May 26, 1931, the son of Roy and Kathleen (Cox) Greene. A graduate of St. Johnsbury Trade School, Mr. Greene served in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Korean Conflict. He worked in construction most of his life working for area firms including Lawrence Sand and Gravel and Calco. He was an avid outdoorsman, especially enjoying hunting and snowmobiling. Kermit thought the world of his family and took great interest in his grandchildren. On May 22, 1954, he married Gloria (Langlois) Greene, who predeceased him Feb. 11, 2001. Survivors include a son, Michael and wife Tina Greene, and their children Zachary and Kaylee, all of Ryegate; a sister, Dorine Moore of Winthrop, Mass.; and several nieces and nephews. He was also predeceased by two brothers, Leon Greene in 1972, and twin brother, Kenneth Greene in 1996. Friends are invited to meet the family at Sayles Funeral Home, Thursday, Aug. 21, from 5-8 p.m. A funeral Mass will be celebrated at St. John the Evangelist Church, Friday, Aug. 22, at 10 a.m. Burial will follow at Mt. Calvary Cemetery. Contributions in his memory may be made to SAD-SAC, P.O. Box 8, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
