

Barbara L. (Kaiser) Moulthrop, 71, of Lyndon, Vt., died peacefully at her home Tuesday evening June 7, 2005, after a five-year battle with breast cancer. She was born Feb. 9, 1934, in St. Johnsbury, daughter of the late Kenneth K. and Bernice E. (Bailey) Kaiser. A graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy, Class of 1951, Mrs. Moulthrop received her bachelor of science degree from Atlantic Union College in South Lancaster, Mass. Mrs. Moulthrop worked as a school teacher for 39 years. She retired from the St. Johnsbury School system after 31 years as a science teacher in the middle school. After retirement, she worked as a volunteer at Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital in St. Johnsbury. An active member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Moulthrop was the oldest charter member there. She served as the church treasurer for more than 30 years, as well as holding many other offices throughout the years. Mrs. Moulthrop enjoyed traveling, reading, crossword puzzles, computers, and feeding and watching the wild birds in her back yard, as well as the many other animals that happened by. Survivors include a brother, Kenneth K. Kaiser and his wife Iris of Connecticut; three sisters, Louise Perry of Michigan, Shirley Kalmansson of Leominster, Mass., and Eldora Kaiser of Clinton, Mass.; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a brother and his wife, Linwood and Joyce Kaiser; and two brothers-in-law, Carrol Perry and Birgir Kalmansson. Funeral services will be held Sunday, June 12, at 11 a.m., at the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Southard Street in St. Johnsbury, with pastor Jack Baker officiating. Burial will follow in the family lot at River Bank Cemetery in Stowe, Vt. Friends may meet with the family Saturday evening from 6-8 at the Guibord Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, donations made in Barbara Moulthrop's memory may be directed to Caledonia Home Health Inc., marked for Hospice, P.O. Box 383, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
