

BAILEY: Kenneth "Ken" G., 68, of Barnet Center, died Wednesday, July 9, 2003, at Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital in St. Johnsbury. He was born in Somerville, Mass., July 31, 1934, the son of Elroy and Mary (Twombly) Bailey. Mr. Bailey served his country during the Korean War in the U.S. Air Force. He worked for NSA Industries (household products) as a machinist. Other local jobs included Kilfasset Dairy. Ken was fond of maple sugaring, four-wheeling, fishing and hunting, and he was always ready for a game of horseshoes. He was a former member of the Elks. Survivors include his wife, Priscilla (Goss) Bailey of Barnet Center; children, Laurie and husband Reginald Emmons of Burke, Jeana and husband Ray Desilets of St. Johnsbury, Elroy and wife Diana Bailey of Alton, N.H., William "Bill" and wife Tammi Bailey of North Danville, Suzy and husband Greg Broome of Wheelock, and Matthew Hawkins and Meredith Hawkins, both of Barnet. He is also survived by five sisters, Charlotte and husband Neal Blodgett of Waterford, Marilyn and husband Ronald Clifford of Lyndonville, Brenda and husband Steve Simpson of Kirby, Barbara Sahlin and Shawna Wilkerson, both of Lyndonville; 10 grandchildren, Ryan, Erica, Robin, Nicquelle, Daniel, Ashley, Hilary, Tanner, Dillan and Bailey; a great-granddaughter, Hailey Emmons of Springfield; and his former wife, Donna Bailey of Reno, Nev. He was predeceased by two brothers, Homer and Henry Bailey; and a sister, Judy Gray. Friends are invited to meet the family at Sayles Funeral Home, Friday, July 11, 6-8 p.m. Memorial services will be held Saturday, July 12, at 11 a.m., at the Presbyterian Church of Barnet Center, with the Rev. John Sanderson officiating. Burial will be held at the Barnet Center Cemetery. Contributions in his memory may be made to the Presbyterian Church of Barnet Center, in care of Merle Fitzgerald, Treasurer, 520 W. Main St., Barnet, VT 05821.
