

Robert E. Crepeault Obituary

Robert E. "Bob" Crepeault, 77, of St. Johnsbury, died peacefully in the comfort of his home, Friday morning, March 21, 2014, after a courageous battle with cancer.

He was born Aug. 4, 1936, in St. Johnsbury the son of Phillip and Hazel (Champany) Crepeault. Bob graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1955. Following high school he served his country in the U.S. Army. On May 22, 1971, he married Sandra Barrett.

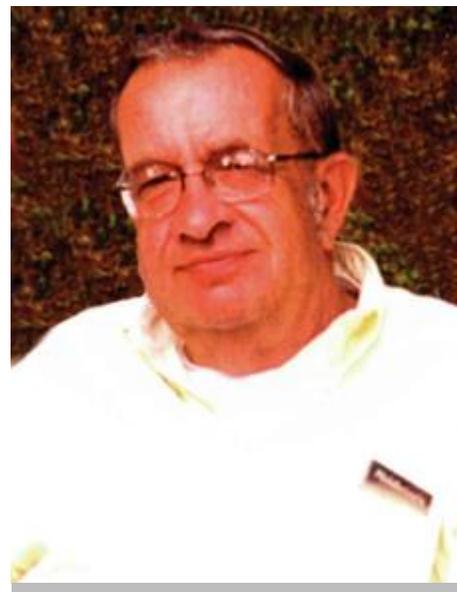

Bob worked for Fairbanks Scales in St. Johnsbury for 39 years. He also operated his own moving company, Bob Crepeault Mover (The Little Mover) for over thirty years moving households, businesses and products near and far. During his retirement, he worked for the Caledonia County Sheriff's Department for seven years.

He was a member of the American Legion Post 58 of St. Johnsbury and the Union Baptist Church congregation. Favorite pastimes included fishing, local and NASCAR racing and antique cars.

Bob was a caring and loving husband and father. He enjoyed people. He is remembered as having a great sense of humor and he always had something funny to share.

Survivors include his wife Sandra of St. Johnsbury; their son, Todd of St. Johnsbury; two sisters, Doris Stetson of St. Johnsbury and Bernice Ash and her husband Melvin of St. Johnsbury; his father and mother in-law, Kenneth and Helen Barrett of Sutton; sisters- and brothers in-law, Sarah Keafer and her husband Dwight of Danville, Stephen Barrett and his wife Annette of Sutton, Dianna Simpson and her husband Tim of Sutton, Ginny Barrett of Lyndonville, Mark Barrett and his wife Karla of Sutton, and Douglas Barrett and Linda Morel Ward of Sutton; many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Other survivors include Skip Irwin and his wife Robin of Groton, whom Bob thought of as a son; dear friends, Ron Hooker and his wife Claire of St. Johnsbury; John Wunder and Sue Noyes of Concord, NH; his UBC family; and many friends and neighbors.
