

Donna Flanders Wann,
'56 of New Point Richey,
FL on October 23, 2015.

WANN, Donna, 77, of New Port Richey, passed into God's hands Oct. 23, 2015. She was born July 9, 1938, in Portland, ME to Phyllis Young Lord and Marquis Flanders. She attended Boston University College of Fine Arts and graduated from the University of Southern Maine with a bachelor's degree in teaching. For many years she owned her own dress shop, taught sewing, and was a superb seamstress all her life. Donna was active in AA and loved music, dancing, creative endeavors, and people. Remaining to cherish her memory are her daughter, Elizabeth Watson; grandson, Nickolas Taylor; granddaughter, Miranda Taylor; sister, Marcia DiBiase; nephew, David DiBiase all of Maine; along with nephews Stephen and Christopher DiBiase of Florida; close cousins; and her beloved extended family of friends in Florida. Celebration of Life will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 3, from 2-4 pm at the Eagles, 5446 Leisure Lane, New Port Richey. Memorial donations may be made to the Eagles and Animals Best Choice Veterinary Hospital.
