

JOHN: Mrs. Doris Mae

JOHN: Mrs. Doris Mae, of Lyndonville, died suddenly Tuesday morning, Aug. 24, 2004, at Northeastern Vermont Regional Hospital at the age of 64. She was born in Suffield, Conn., March 30, 1940, the daughter of George and Gertrude (McKee) Austin. Doris worked for St. Johnsbury Trucking Co. in the computer department for over 27 years. Mrs. John enjoyed crafts, reading, crossword puzzles and going to yard sales in the area. She was always ready to travel and enjoyed touring the backroads of the Northeast. On April 25, 1959, she married Harry John who survives her in Lyndonville. Other survivors include two sons, Douglas and his wife Barbara John of Lyndonville and Michael John of East Burke; a sister, Joyce and her husband Clarence Hardy of Orange, Mass.; two granddaughters, Michelle and Danielle. She was predeceased by her brother, Merton Austin. Services will be held at the Sayles Funeral Home, tonight, Aug. 25, at 7 with Mr. John Sleeper officiating; burial will be held at a later date. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Lyndon Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 401, Lyndonville, VT 05851.