

LEBANON, New Hampshire — Family and friends are invited to attend a graveside burial service at the West Lebanon Cemetery on Pleasant Street in West Lebanon on April 19 at 1 p.m. for Patricia Lawrence Joslin, age 74, who passed away peacefully at her home on Sunday, April 12 surrounded by her loving family. There will be no calling hours. Care was given in her final days by Dr. Adam Schwarz and the Lake Sunapee Region VNA and Hospice.

She was born Nov. 23, 1940, in St. Johnsbury, daughter of the late Carl and Olive (Vear) Lawrence.

She was a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy.

Patricia enjoyed camping, taking trips to Arizona and Florida with her husband, shopping with her sisters and daughters, attending her grandchildren's sporting events, and most of all spending time with her beloved family.

She is survived by her husband Robert Joslin of Lebanon; children, Michele Lyford and her husband, Michael of Quechee, Moni Singleton and husband, Jonathan of West Lebanon, New Hampshire and Mike Joslin and wife, Kelly of Cohasset, Massachusetts; two sisters, Cill Ness of Monroe, New Hampshire and Linda Hains of Springfield; as well as her eight adoring grandchildren, Mak and Madi Lyford, Tanner and Tate Singleton, and Cole, Conor, Cam and Cassidy Joslin; and many other nieces, nephews and loving friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Norris Cotton Cancer Center, 1 Medical Center Drive, Lebanon, N.H. 03756.
