

LaBOUNTY: Paul A., 63, a long-time resident of St. Johnsbury, died at the Rutland Regional Hospital, Sunday, Nov. 3, 2002. He was born in St. Johnsbury April 5, 1939, the son of Delphis and Minerva (Chappell) LaBounty. A graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy, Class of 1958, he had worked for Fairbanks Scales as a purchasing agent. In 1976-77 he was a coordinator for the Junior Achievement Program in New York. Other interests included hunting, fishing and all outdoor activities. During his years at the Academy, he played in the band as a drummer and in 1958 went to Washington, D.C., to play in the Presidential Inauguration. Survivors include three daughters, Kim and husband David Coe of Chandler, Ariz., Sandy and husband Clayton Gilbert of Wallingford, Vt., and Terri and husband Rene Rodriguez of Holden, Mass.; one brother, Gene LaBounty of St. Johnsbury; two sisters, Pam Raposa of Hartford, Conn., and Joan McCahill of Florida; six grandchildren; one great-granddaughter; and a niece. Funeral services will be held at Sayles Funeral Home, Wednesday, at 2 p.m., with Mr. Raymond Desilets officiating. Burial will be held at the convenience of the family. Friends are invited to meet the family at Sayles Funeral Home, Wednesday, from noon until the time of the service. Contributions in his memory may be made to the Rutland Area Visiting Nurses Association and Hospice, 7 Albert Cree Drive, Rutland VT 05701.