

Robert Hill

Robert H. "Bob" Hill, 66, of Concord, Vt., died unexpectedly at his home on Saturday, Aug. 4, 2007. He was born April 9, 1941, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., son of the late Robert A. and Hazel M. (Morton) Hill. Following graduation from the St. Johnsbury Trade School, Bob entered the U.S. Army, serving his country for nine years. He worked at the Gilman Paper Mill for over 25 years and operated his own welding business for many years as well. Bob coached softball in Lunenburg and Gilman for several years. He is remembered for his cooking talents, especially his home made French fries, and his sense of humor. He enjoyed hunting and fishing with his family and always knew the best places to go. Survivors include three children, Michelle Farmer and husband, Alan, of Waterford, Vt., Anthony "Andy" Hill of Waterford, and Matthew Hill of Lyndon, Vt.; his granddaughter, Taylor Farmer; his brother, Ronald Hill and wife, Barbara, of North Danville, Vt.; nieces, nephews, and many friends. Besides his parents Bob was predeceased by his sister Joan Davis. Graveside funeral services will be held Wednesday, Aug. 8, at 11 a.m., in Grove Cemetery in East St. Johnsbury, Vt., with the Rev. Sue Mackay officiating. There will be no visiting hours.
