

George B. Trembley, of Wheelock, died Wednesday evening, Aug. 9, 2006, at the Union House Nursing Home in Glover, at the age of 63. He was born March 6, 1943 in St. Johnsbury, Vt., son of the late Joseph A. and Carrie (Keneson) Trembley. In 1961 George graduated from the St. Johnsbury Trade School. He then entered the U.S. Army and served in Germany. On June 29, 1968, he married Linda Hudson. George worked as a machinist for Northeast Tool Co. in Lyndon for over 20 years. When the company moved to South Carolina, he went to work for VT Tap & Die Co. in Lyndonville as a machinist. Due to failing health, he retired in 2003 after 10 years of service. George was a member of the American Legion Post 30 of Lyndon, and the Tom Breslin Center of Lyndonville. He was an avid outdoorsman who enjoyed deer hunting out of the Wheelock hunting camp, spending time at Seymour Lake, fishing, boating, snowmobiling, and spending time with family and friends. Survivors include his wife, Linda H.
