

Jacquelyn Frey - Obituary

Jacquelyn R. Frey, 68, of Littleton, N.H., died peacefully on Friday, Oct. 5, 2012 at Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, N.H. surrounded by her family.

She was born on March 1, 1944 in St. Johnsbury, Vt. the daughter Robert and Winifred Rose (Montgomery) Rodger. She attended schools in St. Johnsbury, Vt. and was a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy class of 1962, they celebrated their 50th class reunion this year and her classmates were all very special to her.

She had been employed for Seminole Point Hospital in Sunapee, N.H. as Director of Admissions for many years.

Jacquelyn enjoyed spending time with her special friends, she loved holidays with family, music, she was very strong willed and always positive never once complaining about her illness. She also volunteered at the Visiting Center in Littleton, N.H. she just enjoyed visiting with people.

She is survived by one daughter, Heather Smith of Sausalito, Calif.; one son, Jason Smith and his wife Kelly of Wheelock, Vt. and one step-son Charles Frey III of Harrisburg, Pa.; one sister, Gail Roberts and her husband Sam of Passumpsic, Vt. She was predeceased by one brothers, Dana Rodger.

+ click to enlarge

(no description)

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, Oct. 13, 2012 at 1 p.m. in the St. Johnsbury Center Congregational Church in St. Johnsbury, Vt. with the Rev. Glenn Hatch officiating. Interment will follow the service in the family lot in the St. Johnsbury Center Cemetery. Visiting hours will be held on Friday evening from 6-8 p.m. at Pearson's Funeral Home, 70 Church St., Lyndonville, Vt.

Donations in her memory may be made to the charity of one's choice.