

Theresa (Quatrini) Buckbee, 64, died Sunday morning, Oct. 17, 2010, at Fletcher Allen Medical Center after battling a prolonged illness. Theresa was born on Nov. 1, 1945, in St. Johnsbury, Vt., the daughter of Francis and Gloria Quatrini. On Nov. 17, 1962, she married Roger Buckbee, the love of her life, in St. Johnsbury. She enjoyed times spent with family, especially her two grandsons. She spent countless hours at her grandson's hockey practices and games, and enjoyed traveling with their teams, in many ways becoming "Nan" to most everyone. Theresa was a volunteer driver for the North Western Transportation Co., transporting seniors to Richford, Enosburg, St. Albans and the Islands. She is survived by her parents, Francis and Gloria Quatrini of St. Johnsbury; her children Brent Buckbee and wife Brenda of St. Albans, Laurie Buckbee of Fairfax, and Brian Buckbee and wife Lori of Colchester; grandsons Ryan and Matthew Buckbee; brothers Steve and wife Susan Quatrini of St. Johnsbury, and Bryon and wife Janet Quatrini of St. Johnsbury; sisters-in-law June Buckbee of Ohio and Vicki Quatrini of St. Johnsbury; her aunt Anna Hawks of Connecticut; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband of 45 years, Roger Buckbee, who passed away in 2007, and her brother Gary Quatrini, who passed away in 2001. Funeral services will be held Thursday, Oct. 21, 2010, at 11 a.m. in St. Ann's Catholic Church in Milton. For those who wish, memorial contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Assoc., 1 Kennedy Drive, Suite L8, South Burlington, VT 05403.
