

LAMOTHE: Paul J., 55, of St. Johnsbury, died suddenly, Wednesday, March 20, 2002. He was born in St. Johnsbury May 31, 1946, the son of Camille and Jeanne (Descoteaux) Lamothe. Paul was a 1966 graduate of St. Johnsbury Trade School. A Vietnam War veteran, Paul served two tours of duty while enlisted in the United States Army. He later received an associate's degree in computer technology from Indiana Technical Institute. He was a member of the American Legion. Paul worked for various employers in the St. Johnsbury area, the last five years at D.G. Roofing. He greatly enjoyed outdoor activities including hunting, fishing, boating, skiing and snowmobiling. He also worked on Car 71 at the area race car circuit. He was always willing to lend a helping hand to all of his numerous friends and family. He is survived by two daughters, April Lamothe of Sheffield and Shellie Lamothe of St. Johnsbury; one grandson, William Tanner Jr.; his mother, Jeanne Lamothe of St. Johnsbury; two sisters, Elaine Evans and husband William of St. Johnsbury, and Karen Hollerby of St. Johnsbury; three brothers, Richard Lamothe and wife Anita of Live Oak, Texas, Dennis Lamothe and wife Diane of St. Johnsbury, and David Lamothe and wife Renee of Daytona Beach, Fla.; and several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. Public graveside services will be held in August at the Mt. Calvary Cemetery in St. Johnsbury, the time and date to be announced. There will be no visiting hours. Paul spent many happy hours in his youth swimming at the Kiwanis Pool. His family suggests friends and family wishing to send a contribution in his memory consider the Kiwanis Pool, P.O. Box 204, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
