

Hollis D. Emmons, 59, of Littleton, N.H., died Sunday, Feb. 5, 2006, at St. Mary's Hospital in Racine, Wis. Mr. Emmons was born in Littleton, the son of Robert and Katherine (Mooney) Emmons. He attended local schools and graduated from St. Johnsbury Trade School. He then went on to work with his father in running RD Emmons Plumbing and Heating. After his father's retirement, he went back to school to learn to drive tractor-trailers. He had worked for Wausau Carriers and most recently Roehl Transportation of Groveton. In his free time, Mr. Emmons enjoyed model trains. He was a member of the Trico Model Railroad Society of St. Johnsbury, and a founding member of the Ammonoosuc Valley Railroad Association. He is survived by his mother, Katherine (Mooney) Emmons of Littleton; and aunts, uncles and cousins. There are no calling hours.
