

NASH: Julie Ann, 53, of St. Johnsbury, died Saturday, March 29, 2003 at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, N.H. She was born in St. Johnsbury, June 28, 1949, the daughter of Lt. Chester L. and Isabelle (Whitman) Nash. Julie graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy. She worked at Fairbanks Scales and most recently was manager at the St. Johnsbury Video King. In 1998 she was disabled. She was a volunteer for the MS Society, worked on the local MS walks, and became a champion power lifter at The Club At Old Mill in St. Johnsbury. Her two favorite pastimes were playing cribbage with Dennis Hovey of St. Johnsbury, and spoiling her 1-year-old cat, Angel Babe, who survives her. Family members who survive her include a daughter, Jaime Bates and fiance James Pearl of St. Johnsbury; a son, James and wife Lisa Elder of Chicago, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Wayne (Lynn) Brown of St. Johnsbury, Mrs. Rufus (Jacquelyn) Dawson of Lyndonville, and Mrs. Joan Hayes of St. Johnsbury; and several nieces and nephews. Friends are invited to the Sayles Funeral Home, Wednesday, April 2, from 6 to 8 p.m., for a time of remembrance and celebration. Burial and committal services will be at the convenience of the family. Contributions in her memory may be made to the local MS walk coming up in April, in care of Jaime Bates, 208 Summer St., St. Johnsbury, VT 05819
