

Stephanie Spicer Moskal, 67, of Littleton, NH passed away Sunday, Dec. 11, 2016 after a long illness. Born in St. Johnsbury, Vermont on December 5, 1949, Stephanie was the middle of three children born to Alden 'Babe' Spicer and Margaret 'Glenn' Goodrich. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy with the class of 1967 and later obtained her associate's degree from Lyndon State College.

She worked for Yankee Farm Credit for much of the 1980's and 1990's and then had another decade plus long career as co-director of volunteers for Littleton Regional Hospital and sincerely loved working with all the volunteers. Stephanie loved the numerous vacations she and Al went on, many to the Maine coast and Sarasota, FL, and enjoyed the warmth of Florida where they eventually spent the winters. Shopping, especially for her grandchildren also brought her much joy as did gardening and landscaping their awe inspiring gardens in both New Hampshire and Florida. She adored and loved spending time with her three grandchildren, Peyton Rolfe and Coulson and Chloe Angell.

She is survived by her loving husband Al, son Christopher Rolfe and his wife Melissa; daughter Adriane 'Annie' Angell and husband Tim; her three grandchildren Peyton, Coulson and Chloe; brother Jim Spicer, stepson Bob Moskal and three step-grandchildren Robbie, Johnny and Brandi and is pre-deceased by her husband Richard Buck.

A gathering of friends and family will be held at the Sayles Funeral Home in St. Johnsbury on Tuesday, Dec. 20 from 2-4 p.m. concluding with a brief prayer service beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Memorial contributions should be directed to a favorite charity in memory of Stephanie.
