

Dianne Marguerite Langlois Dopp of St. Johnsbury, Vt., passed away unexpectedly Friday evening, July 6, 2007, at the age of 56. Dianne was born in St. Johnsbury Oct. 10, 1950, one of four children born to Edward and Pauline (Dubois) Langlois. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1968 and went to the Art Institute of Boston. Dianne was a very caring and giving person. She loved taking care of other people. She had a great love for her cats and flower gardens, but her love of family always came first. She worked for New England Telephone in Montpelier and St. Johnsbury for many years, and later did antique show promotion throughout New England. She was currently working at the P & H Truck Stop in Wells River. She is survived by her husband, Everett of St. Johnsbury (100 Clayton St. 05819); her parents, Edward and Pauline Langlois of Waterford, Vt., (220 East Village Road 05819); three sisters, Anne Loetterle and husband Richard of Westerlo, N.Y., Susan Ely and husband Gaylon of East St. Johnsbury, and Theresa Huntoon and husband Burleigh of St. Johnsbury; her nieces and nephews, Monique and Bill Haller and their children Allison and Ryan, Valerie Loetterle and Richard Loetterle Jr., Derek and Heather Rutledge and their children Jericho and Harper, Joshua Rutledge, Doug and Marla Mongiove and daughter Jessica, and Tyler and Tanner Huntoon. A funeral Mass will be celebrated Wednesday at 11 a.m. at St. John the Evangelist Church. Friends and family may gather at the Sayles Funeral Home Tuesday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. Dianne loved the beauty of nature and art. So in lieu of flowers, contributions marked in Dianne's memory may be directed to the St. Johnsbury Academy Arts Department, 1000 Main St., St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
