

Doris Boulay, 57

Doris A. Boulay of Lyndonville, Vt., died suddenly at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, N.H., Tuesday, Aug. 14, 2007, at the age of 57. She was born Dec. 13, 1949, to Raymond and Marguerite (Patoine) LaBree. Doris graduated from Lyndon Institute in 1968. Her father passed away July 10, 2006. Doris had been receiving cancer treatments for the past three years but died when an undetected tumor caused her unexpected death. She and husband Bernard co-owned Boulay's Auto on Route 122 in Lyndonville. Doris was an active member of St. Elizabeth's Church and enjoyed volunteering at Lyndon Institute. She made her family first and foremost in her life. She loved traveling, being at Old Orchard Beach, Maine, shopping, anything NASCAR and being at the family camp in South Wheelock/Stannard. She is survived by her husband Bernard; her mother Marguerite LaBree of Lyndonville; her grandmother Rosa Patoine of Hardwick; three children, Scott Boulay and wife Susan of Knoxville, Tenn., Melissa Hall and husband Stacy of East Burke, Vt., Laura Leonard and husband Jerry of Lyndonville; three grandchildren, Elizabeth and Cassandra Leonard and Josh Welch; brother Robert LaBree and wife Susan of Lyndonville. Visiting hours will be held at Guibord Funeral Home Friday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. A funeral Mass will be celebrated Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Church, with a luncheon following at the Breslin Center. Burial will be at the convenience of the family at St. Elizabeth Cemetery in Lyndonville. Memorial contributions could be directed to Norris Cotton Cancer Center, DHMC Development Office, attention Michelle Clark, 1 Medical Center Drive, Lebanon, NH 03756. Condolences and memories may be shared privately online at www.guibordfh.com. Guibord Funeral home is located on the corner of Main and Center streets in Lyndonville.