

Gerald Clinton Boyce, 60, Woodsville, N.H., died on Sunday, April 26, 2009, at the Cottage Hospital in Woodsville. Gerald was born in Haverhill, N.H., Nov. 20, 1948, the son of Clinton Wilbur and Frances Dora (Cushing) Boyce. He graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy Trade School in St. Johnsbury. Gerald served in the U. S. Army for two years. He worked as a carpenter for his brother Larry at Boyce Carpentry in Wells River. He thoroughly enjoyed growing plants. He was predeceased by his father, Clinton W. Boyce. Survivors include his children, Sherry Fisher and husband Terry of Lisbon, N.H., Hollie Boyce of Montgomery, Texas, Gary Boyce of St. Johnsbury, Chris Boyce and wife Veronica of Newbury, Nick Boyce of New York, Emily Boyce of New York, Vanessa Bradford, Crystal Bradford, and Ashley Bradford all of Woodsville; 15 grandchildren; his mother, Frances (Cushing) Boyce of North Haverhill, N.H.; two sisters, Brenda Boyce of Wells River, and Joy George of Woodsville; a brother, Larry Boyce of Wells River; his fiancée Priscilla Bradford of Woodsville; and several nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles. A graveside service will be on Wednesday, May 6, 2009, at 1 p.m., in the Boltonville Cemetery, Newbury.