

QUATRINI: Gary Jack, 50, died Saturday, Oct. 20, 2001, after a courageous battle with cancer, at his home surrounded by his whole family. Gary was born in St. Johnsbury Dec. 16, 1950, and attended schools in St. Johnsbury and graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy, class of 1969. He was a member of the Elks Club, the Caledonia Classic Auto Club, the American Legion, and St. Johnsbury Country Club. He enjoyed playing golf and driving his classic car, time with his family, traveling, and spending time with his many, many friends. Gary worked at Tap & Die in Lyndonville. For years Gary and Vicki owned the Wooden Horse in St. Johnsbury. Recently he worked at H.O. Taylor and Charter Communications, and volunteered as a driver for Rural Community Transportation. Gary is survived by his wife of 30 years, Vicki (Lavelly); his daughter Anna and husband Bruce Cushman; his parents, Francis and Gloria (Pelow) Quatrini; his brothers Steven (and Susan) Quatrini, Bryon (and Janet) Quatrini; his sister, Theresa (and Roger) Buckbee; his in-laws, Arthur and Lucille Lavelly, and brother-in-law David (and Judy) Lavelly; a special aunt, Anna Hawkes; several nieces and nephews; and his life-long friends Dune and Stephanie Berube. Visiting hours will be at the Sayles Funeral Home in St. Johnsbury, today from 5 to 8 p.m. A funeral service will be held at the North Congregational Church Tuesday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. Mel Richardson officiating. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in Gary's name to Caledonia Home Health and Hospice, Sherman Drive, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819, or to CALEX, in care of Jay Woods, Hospital Drive, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
