

Richard A. Spencer Sr. - Obituary

Richard Allen Spencer Sr., 63, of Hardwick died Jan. 9, 2013, in the comfort of his home with his loving wife at his side.

He was born Jan. 9, 1950 in St. Johnsbury, the son of the late Richard H. and Priscilla (Welch) Spencer. He graduated from St. Johnsbury Trade School in the class of 1969.

He first married Linda Pearce. He later married Joan S. Pilbin Smith in Port Charlotte, Fla. on Jan. 10, 2006. They spent several years wintering in Florida and making Vermont home during the summer months.

He enlisted in the Marine Corp. on Oct. 2, 1969 in Albany, N.Y. Richard served his country in the California, Philippines, Okinawa, Florida, North Carolina and Virginia. On March 6, 1974, Richard was awarded the Marine Corp Medal for heroism while serving in the U.S. Naval Base, Subic Bay, Republic of the Philippines. Gny Sgt. Spencer was honorably discharged on Sept. 26, 1983 with service connected disability.

Dick was a member of the American Legion Post # 58 and the Elks Club, both in St. Johnsbury, the Breslin Center in Lyndonville and the Moose Club on Merritt Island, Fla. He loved the time that he spent with his family, many friends and particularly his grandchildren. He
