

David J. Taylor, 57, of St. Johnsbury died unexpectedly at his home on Monday October 12, 2009. He was born in St. Johnsbury on Feb. 15, 1952, the son of Floyd and Muriel (Mackay) Taylor. David graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1970. He then entered the US Marine Corp where he was injured and became disabled in 1972. He loved the out-of-doors and was an avid trapper, hunter, and fisherman. He also enjoyed traveling throughout the United States. Survivors include six children, Floyd, David Jr., Mary Lou, Daniel, Martha Rose, and Sara Grace Taylor; five grandchildren; two sisters, Pamela Bach and husband Ralph of North Carolina, and Jeannie Heywood and husband Myron of St. Johnsbury; two brothers, Brian Taylor and wife Chris of North Haverhill, N.H., and Craig Taylor and wife Rhonda of St. Johnsbury; four aunts and uncles, Don and Marlene Taylor, William and Kay Mackay, Margaret Irwin, and Maitland and the Rev. Sue Mackay; and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. David was predeceased by his parents, Floyd and Muriel Taylor. Services will be private and held at the convenience of the family.