

Donald M. Jacobs '50, Nov. 5, 1997, in Tampa, Fla., at 70. He served in the Navy in World War II. After a 20-year career at St. Johnsbury Academy in Vermont as teacher and administrator, he became headmaster of Kents Hill School in Maine in 1970. He also served on many social service and professional organizations. Predeceased by his brother, Robert Jacobs '49, he is survived by his wife of 47 years, Marjorie, a son, two daughters, an AFS daughter, his mother, his sister, Elizabeth Jacobs Christopoulos '50, and eight grandchildren.