

FENOFF: Stanley W., of Danville, died Wednesday, Nov. 17, 2004, at Mass General Hospital, Boston, Mass., at the age of 54. He was born in St. Johnsbury, Oct. 9, 1950, the son of Kenneth K. and Lorraine (Gammell) Fenoff. Stan had worked for Verizon for over 20 years throughout this area as an equipment installer. Stan had a great love for his family. For many years, he raised and showed Morgan horses and he was also a great supporter of Trent's motorcycle racing. His free spirit gave him the love of his motorcycles and snowmobiles. He and his wife Kathy took great pride in creating landscaping designs of which his favorites were stone steps and walls. Survivors include his wife, Kathy (Patenaude) Fenoff; and son, Trent and his wife Amanda Fenoff, all of Danville; grandmother, Lorraine Gammell of St. Johnsbury; two brothers and their wives, Steven and Joanne Fenoff of Danville, and Scott and Sue Stuart of Monroe, N.H.; three sisters and their husbands, Sandra and Gordon Ward of Monroe, N.H., Shirley and Pat Gillander of Danville, and Tammie and Jim Bijolle of Waterford; a grandson, Rily W. Fenoff of Danville; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. He was predeceased by his parents. On Saturday, Nov. 20, at the Queen of Peace Church Hall, Danville, Vt., there will be a memorial service from 2-4 p.m., with a remembrance of his life at 3 p.m. Burial will be held at the convenience of the family. Contributions in his name may be made to the St. Johnsbury Kiwanis Club, Inc., P.O. Box 204, St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
