

Dennis K. "Weasel" Jenkins, age 61, of Rabbit Plain and lifelong resident of St. Johnsbury passed away at his home with his family beside him on Wednesday, December 30, 2015, following a battle with cancer.

Dennis was born in St. Johnsbury, VT, on August 6, 1954, to Barbara A. (Brewer) and the late Donald Dwight Jenkins. He was raised and educated in town graduating from St. Johnsbury Academy in the Class of 1972. He worked at Weidmann Electrical Technology for over 42 years becoming Team Leader on Pressboards. He enjoyed his work immensely but loved the outdoors much more. His hobbies included hunting, fishing, and keeping his vegetable garden, cooking, bowling, tinkering on cars or working on the house, but he did not like Bingo! Weasel loved riding his motorcycle and taking trips to Maine with family, climbing the rocks and enjoying nature. Above all these, his family came first, from tending to the blueberry bushes and apple trees with the kids and grandkids to simply sharing time. The kids were his heart and he cherished all the time with them.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 34 years, Donna R. (Bradley) Jenkins, his mother, Barbara A. Brewer, two sons: Justin P. Jenkins and fiancée, Amanda Dick, Christopher K. Jenkins, a brother: Robert D. Jenkins, a step-brother: Rick Fisher and his wife, Judy, a step-sister: Barbara and husband, Philip "Bing" Nelson, 2 grandchildren: Jayden P. and Nevaeh L. Jenkins all of St. Johnsbury and several sisters & brothers-in-law, cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his father, Donald, his sister: Norma Mae Shumway and his step-father: George Fisher, who raised him.
