

Judith Ann Cook, age 58, died Tuesday, Oct. 12, 2010, at Pine Knoll CCH in Lyndonville after a long and debilitating illness. Judy was born Feb. 25, 1952, in Claremont, N.H., the daughter of Roy Earl Cook of West Lebanon, N.H., and Ethera May Snelling of Sheffield Vt. Judy graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy, Class of 1972. She lived recently at Pilgrim Manor in West Burke and enjoyed attending the Community Meal Site there. Judy is survived by her mother, Ethera Snelling-Miles of Pownal, Vt.; siblings Roy Cook and wife Louise of Lyndonville, Bruce Miles of Woodford, Vt., and Beth Alison Miles of Pownal; niece Morgan Cook of Lyndonville; also many Berry, Snelling and Newland cousins. Judy was predeceased by her father, Roy Earl Cook, June 27, 1964. Judy had many friends over the years that drove her to appointments, helped her at home, etc., and her family wishes to express sincere gratitude to all of you. A special thank-you to Charlie Weis of Sutton who was her constant companion and caregiver. Arrangements are by Pearsons Funeral Home LLC in Lyndonville, Vt. At Judy's request, there are no calling hours and the burial will be private.
