

Mark Edward Byrne, 60, Kansas City, MO passed away Thursday, March 5, 2015 at St. Luke's Hospital following a tragic fall. Mark had an accomplished and recognized career spanning 35 years in Marketing, Sales, Business Operations and Consulting and he was distinguished for his leadership, most recently as President and CEO of IBT, Inc. of Kansas City. Born in St. Johnsbury, Vermont to John E. and Lucille M. Byrne, Mark demonstrated his leadership skills early as he graduated at the top of his class and excelled in Football, Baseball, Basketball and Track at St. Johnsbury Academy. He went on to earn his BS in Marketing from the University of Vermont where he played football and was a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity. Mark is survived by his sisters Susan (Havers), Martinsville, IN and Martha Byrne of Essex Junction, VT; nephews Matt Havers and wife Sarah, Evan Havers, Ryan Lanoue and wife Ashley, and Brendan Lanoue. He is also survived by many close friends including former spouse Deirdre Devine. Mark was an avid fan of the New England sports franchises as well as the KC Royals and the Chiefs. He was a member of the Advisory Board for the Derrick Johnson Defend the Dream Foundation and supported many local charities. A service honoring Mark's life and memory will be held at Mission Hills Country Club on Friday, March 13, 2015 at 5:00 p.m. followed by time with family until 8:00 p.m.

Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to St. Luke's Neurosciences Institute. Mark's family is forever grateful to the CEO, physicians and nurses of St. Luke's Neuro Science ICU for their exceptional care, kindness and compassion.
