

Terry McQuade, 51

Terry L. McQuade, of Lyndonville, died Thursday morning, Dec. 28, 2006, at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, N.H., following a brief illness, at the age of 51. She was born March 4, 1955, in Newport, the daughter of Lawrence and Faye (Urie) Valley. Terry graduated from Lyndon Institute, Class of 1973. On July 2, 1976, she married Charles R. McQuade. Terry operated a day care in her home for the last 30 years. She was a mother to many and was always willing to help others in need. A loving wife and mother, she loved camping, shopping, sunbathing, gardening, decorating her home for the holidays, entertaining friends and family, auto racing and attending her sons' sporting events. For many years she was a director of the Lyndon Outing Club. Survivors include her husband of 30 years, Charles McQuade of Lyndonville; two sons, Christopher McQuade and his fiancée Jennifer Peterson of West Burke, and Casey McQuade and his wife Amy and their son Carsen of West Burke; her mother, Faye Valley of Barton; three brothers and their families, Wayne Valley of Barton and his daughter Alicia Tosi of Barre, Mark Valley and his wife Joyce and their children Willey and Heather of Sheffield, and Randall Valley of Barton and his son Ransom of Wyoming; a half-sister, Kate Eastman of Maine; aunts; uncles; cousins; and many, many close friends. She was predeceased by her father, Lawrence Valley, in 1981. Friends may meet with the family Saturday, Dec. 30, from 4-7 p.m., at the funeral home. Funeral services will be held Sunday, Dec. 31, at 2 p.m., at the Guibord Funeral Home with the Rev. Patrick Forman officiating. Spring burial will be in St. Paul's cemetery in Barton. In lieu of flowers, donations made in Terry's memory may be directed to Books on Wheels II, in care of Cobleigh Public Library, P.O. Box 147, Lyndonville, VT 05851-0147.
