

ROBINSON: Linda R. (Villeneuve) of Lyndonville, passed away at home unexpectedly Friday, Nov. 14, 2003. Linda was a survivor. In 1993, she contracted viral encephalitis, bravely battled its after-effects, and fought for her recovery. Her courage, strength and attitude were admirable throughout. She thoroughly enjoyed all her sons' school and sports activities. Knitting was both her passion and her specialty. She was born in St. Johnsbury, June 28, 1957, and was the daughter of William and Beverly Villeneuve. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy in 1975. On April 20, 1979, she and William Robinson were married. She is survived by her husband, Bill (100 Pine Ridge Circle, Lyndonville, VT 05851); two sons, Benjamin Robinson and his fiancée Paige Loomis of Lyndonville, and James Robinson of Lyndonville; her parents, William and Bev Villeneuve of St. Johnsbury; her mother-in-law, Beverly Robinson of Lyndonville; her sister, Brenda Lane and her husband David of St. Johnsbury; one sister-in-law, Cindy Lamb and her husband Jack of Underhill; two brothers-in-law, Donald Robinson of Swanton, Thomas Robinson and his wife Tori of Colchester; aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. A funeral Mass will be celebrated Tuesday at 11 a.m. at St. John the Evangelist Church in St. Johnsbury. Visiting hours will be held at the Sayles Funeral Home Monday from 5-8 p.m. Memorial contributions could be directed to the Epilepsy Foundation of Vermont, P.O. Box 6292, Rutland, VT 05702.
